

MUCH OF OPPOSITION TO BYLAWS OVERCOME WHEN ALDERMEN EXPLAIN PLANS

Stormy Scene at Ratepayers' Meeting When W. C. McArthur Makes Attack on Aldermen Property Owners' Association's Pamphlets Have Little Effect on Large Audience.

As was anticipated, a very large crowd of ratepayers was present at the meeting to discuss the proposed bylaws. The meeting was extremely orderly except when W. C. McArthur addressed the assembly. There were a number of the so-called opponents to the bylaws at the Empire auditorium, but when the bylaws were not more than three or four who were not entirely in favor of the bylaws.

Pamphlets were distributed about the hall from the Edmonton Property Owners' association and signed by the secretary, R. S. McKinnis. Mr. McKinnis is the gentleman who met with such a cool reception at the Norwood boulevard meeting on Friday night. These pamphlets tell the ratepayers that this association has decided to support the bylaws. The "executive" has agreed to support the bylaws for the exhibition association, central office, building and construction department for 1912 and 1913, city's share of street paving for 1912 and 1913, city's share of grading and plank walks for 1912 and 1913, city's share of grading and plank walks for 1912 and 1913.

The bylaws that the association agrees to support are those for the fire, stores and police departments, working capital, for the fire, stores and police departments, working capital, for the fire, stores and police departments, working capital, for the fire, stores and police departments, working capital.

The bylaws for extensions of the street railway, telephones and electric lighting system all left to the judgment of the voter as well as the parks and the cemetery bylaw.

It was remarked in the meeting to the Capital reporter that it was worthy of note to see that this "executive committee" is in the hands of the bourgeoisie to decide whether it is necessary to have a plan to bury people.

Alderman Driscoll stated that the "executive" are in favor of the parks bylaw, only they are afraid that 100 per cent on the dollar will not be received. This circular letter also states "we approve of the principle of bylaws 18, 19 and 20, but that they do not at all express the meaning intended they should be voted against."

Little Notice Taken. A point worthy of comment was that there were apparently as many pamphlets on the table as there had been at the meeting started except a few that were scattered around the room where they had apparently been thrown to disgust.

Professor Alexander was elected chairman and remarked when opening the meeting that he had come to speak in favor of the bylaws, but had relinquished this pleasure to become chairman and would try to be fair to all notwithstanding.

He thought it would be far better if a little more fairness was shown in municipal politics.

Accorded Good Reception. Alderman May took the platform and was unable to speak for a few minutes owing to the brilliant reception accorded him. He stated amidst loud applause that the opponents who thought the election of present administration last year are now fighting the bylaws and do not seem to realize when they are "kicked." He pointed out that the per capita debt of the city according to the present assessment and taking 75,000 as a basis of population is $120, making a net asset of $55 per head which is the highest net per capita asset of any city in the Dominion of Canada.

He stated that the people on Jasper were now leaving a large amount of improvements paid for by the city at large and now that the residential sections headed improvements they did not wish to bear any of the cost. He asked the audience: "Is it fair?"

A loud yell of "No!" came back from the audience. If from one voice instead of from hundreds of throats. He pointed out that last year's administration was held because they did not have a working capital to work upon and this was what this administration wished to avoid.

Alderman May pointed out that no large corporation could carry on any great undertaking without a working capital. He explained that at the end of 40 years of history of interest and striking fund this $55,000 would be a surplus. He stated that if bylaws were not passed for local improvements money would have to be borrowed from the bank at such a high rate of interest. He stated that during the stringency of 1907 in the money market the bank had charged down upon the city and if there had been a working capital then the city's street would not have lain top up with mud.

No Tangible Reason. At this time the chairman announced that an opportunity would be given to anyone to express views for or against the bylaws. Someone in the audience called on D. R. Fraser to speak but Fraser refused to say anything. Joseph Adair responded to a call. He had no particular line to speak about as he had not come prepared to address the meeting, but remarked that he would not find any tangible reason for any opposition to the bylaws. He stated that the working capital system was to replace the system of temporary financing from the banks and thus he would be able to cope with any financial difficulties that might arise.

Alderman Shepard stated that he was "glad to hear the 10 minutes of opposition which nobody gave." He remarked that he was sorry to say it, but he was afraid the bulk of the property owners association were helping the business press to "knock" the city administration. Alderman Shepard stated that he was sorry to see the main opposition against the bylaws regarding the city's share of local improvements as the principle opponents had received their improvements and did not wish to bear a fair share of the other fellows, who were now paying 20 per cent of their improvements. He spoke for a short time in favor of all numerical acquiescence.

Says Parks Necessary. R. B. Chadwick, superintendent of parks, said that he was in favor of the parks bylaw. He stated that every child that is born in this city or that comes to this city should be given the opportunity to play in the parks.

Mr. Chadwick stated that there were 9,000 children in the city schools and there were 5,000 who were not in school yet to attend school, and these children need playgrounds as it would bring a decrease in crime amongst the children as well as the adults had been proved by the experience of other cities. He went on to say that there was only one out of every eight children who were in the parks and he stated that he was sure that the public school and therefore these children need a physical development to carry on the work. Mr. Chadwick stated that it was the citizens duty as men and women to give the children a chance to express themselves in free play and in this way diminish the number of defects and educate the children to be good, upright citizens.

Alderman Clarke spoke upon the working capital bylaws in general, and stated that if the bylaws like the one for the Strathcona hospital were turned down the money would have to come out of the general tax rate this year and from 1914 to 1915 would have to be included in this year's taxes. He stated that he considered it cowardly to distribute handbills against the bylaws at the eleventh hour, as had been done by the Property Owners' association.

After Alderman Clarke had spoken for his allotted fifteen minutes the chairman asked for a showing of hands as to whether he should continue or not. Two hands were noticed against and hundreds for. Alderman Clarke continued and stated that he was sure that he knew of had been placed for him and were being held up awaiting the outcome of the working capital bylaw as well as the parks and police would be cancelled and a detriment to the city. He stated that the working capital is a debt or overdraft which can never be foreclosed.

Denounces "Working Capital." Robert Lee was the next speaker, and the chairman had a hard time keeping order and getting the audience to give Mr. Lee a hearing. Mr. Lee denounced the working capital bylaw and city share bylaws relating to local improvements for 1912.

W. C. McArthur followed Mr. Lee, and when Mr. McArthur started to get personal towards Alderman Clarke he was cried down by the audience. The chairman did his utmost to give Mr. McArthur a hearing the audience made an uproar that forced Mr. McArthur to take his seat.

To the few remarks by Mr. McArthur that could be heard above the howl by those who were very near the platform Alderman Clarke replied. George H. Gowan was the next speaker and spoke in favor of the Edmoness system of street numbering which was apparently very well received by the audience.

Alderman East spoke in favor of the Edmoness scheme. He enlarged upon the system of working capital and asked for special support of the bylaw and if it was defeated the order fire station bylaws. He stated there had been a bylaw brought down last Thursday restraining this administration or any future council from borrowing money on bylaws 18, 19 and 20 which are for the city's share of 1913 local improvements. He concluded by dealing with the local improvement bylaws in general.

Favors Edmoness Scheme. Mr. Revell was the last speaker and he addressed the people in favor of the Edmoness scheme. He stated that if the city adopted the all-numerical system he was sure the press in the east would criticize the city very much as it gave too much scope for unscrupulous real estate men to beguile the people.

Alderman Campbell, Calder, Smith and Douglas were not present at the auditorium to which they had been invited.

A vote of thanks was passed before the meeting adjourned, to the chairman, for the efficient and unclouded manner in which he had conducted the meeting.

A meeting was also held in the Grand Trunk Pacific Cafe, Elm Park on Saturday evening and was very well attended. Aldermen East, Clarke and Driscoll were present.

Mr. Driscoll was the next speaker, and the chairman had a hard time keeping order and getting the audience to give Mr. Driscoll a hearing. Mr. Driscoll denounced the working capital bylaw and city share bylaws relating to local improvements for 1912.

W. C. McArthur followed Mr. Driscoll, and when Mr. McArthur started to get personal towards Alderman Clarke he was cried down by the audience. The chairman did his utmost to give Mr. McArthur a hearing the audience made an uproar that forced Mr. McArthur to take his seat.

BACK TO THE LAND FEVER SPREADING

Superintendent of Tegler Block Latest Victim of Incurable Disease.

START BIG MARKET GARDEN Thinks Conditions Here Are Ideal For Diversified Farming.

H. S. Williams, superintendent of the Tegler block, the largest business building in western Canada, is one who would just as soon burn up his hands and face in the fresh air of the country as roast himself and his brains in the stifling atmosphere of the city.

He has just resigned his position to cultivate 125 acres of highly productive land situated two and a half miles south of Whyte avenue. Roy Tegler is associated with him in the enterprise.

He is planning to put 50 acres in potatoes this spring. Mr. Williams said this morning, "and in addition we will have three horses to do the work, using an automobile for driving to and from town."

"We have a comfortable house and a good barn on the place, which is about five miles from Jasper avenue and first street, and we will make other needed improvements as rapidly as possible."

"I have farmed in various parts of the United States, also visited most of the best mixed farming districts south of the international boundary, but I do not know of any place where there are such ideal conditions for diversified farming as those afforded in the Edmonton district, especially in the vicinity of Edmonton.

"We have made careful investigations and studied the situation carefully, and I am satisfied we will receive substantial returns on the investment.
In addition to a good living, our plans are to operate the farm along business lines, just as a careful merchant runs his business."

"We will put the entire acreage under cultivation next year, meanwhile placing the farmed portion in shape for a crop this season, at the same time adding livestock and poultry and brushing and breaking the rest."

"The proximity of our farm to the city, which offers exceptional markets for vegetables, poultry and dairy products of all kinds, gives us an advantage over farmers in the outlying district, but I am satisfied that careful farming in any part of the Edmonton country will pay handsome returns on the capital and labor invested."

The farm, which Messrs. Williams and Tegler are undertaking to bring up to a high state of cultivation, is owned by Robert Tegler, and valued at $100 an acre.

high score of the afternoon was made by A. Darby, who made 22 out of 25.
Other scores were: G. Speer 21, D. Mc-Afee 17, W. Robinson 17, Captain Rob-

CORNWALLIS-WEST WEDS MRS. PATRICK CAMPBELL AFTER WIFE SET FREE

London, April 4.—The decree of divorce granted to Mrs. George Cornwallis-West, formerly Lady Randolph Churchill, and a daughter of the late Leonard Jerome, of New York, was made absolute by the divorce court today, the requisite period having elapsed since the first decree.

The grounds were desertion and misconduct.
Mrs. Cornwallis-West will in future be known as Lady Randolph Churchill.
A few hours after the divorce had been pronounced absolute, George Cornwallis-West married Mrs. Patrick
Campbell, the English actress.

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY

TO TAKE MOVIES OF LAST MILE OF STEEL LAID IN CONNECTING G. T. P. LINE

Morley Donaldson Tells of What Has Taken Place in West During Last Year, and Predicts What Will Happen This Year—
Real Trek Now Starting.

Confirming the predictions made more than once recently by lesser lights in the railway world, Morley Donaldson, general manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway, on Saturday night told an interesting story of what has occurred on the great transcontinental during the last few months and an optimistic one of what will happen in the next few.

Mr. Donaldson was with a large party of railway officials and others who came through from Winnipeg for the driving of the last spike on the G.
T. P., which will take place tomorrow or Wednesday at or near Port Fraser, C. P. They arrived in Edmonton in three special cars attached to train
No. 1.

One of the special cars contained a motion picture taking outfit, and the last mile of track to be laid will be shown throughout the night. Elaborate preparations are being made to lay all the steel except half a mile at each end when the picture outfit press correspondents and everything ready, the two gangs will start and attempt to lay the last mile in record breaking time.

Arrive at Prince George.
Arriving here at 9.30 Saturday evening, the major portion of the party spent a few hours at the King Edward hotel. At Edmonton their cars were switched off No. 1. They did not go west on the 30-45 train, but remained in Edmonton till 6 o'clock Sunday morning when special was made up so that the trip to Melville, including the Yellowhead pass, could be made by daylight. They reached Melville late last night and left there this morning for Prince George, where they will probably arrive early enough in the day to inspect that new city thoroughly. Tomorrow morning they will be on the end of the line, the which by the next day will be the end of steel no longer, after which they will go right to the coast.

Here Mr. Donaldson the following officials were in the party: Geo.
W. Caye, assistant to the vice-president; H. H. Larnard, solicitor for the G. T. P.; W. Le B. Ross, local treasurer; J. Rosevear, auditor of disbursements; J. A. Hoeman, assistant to the chief engineer; G. W. Robb, superintendent of motive power; J. L. Hodge-son, master car builder; J. E. Russell, right of way and claims agent; Guy
C. Dunn, divisional engineer; A. B.
Smith, manager of telegraphs; and German Jorman, superintendent of the sleeping and dining car department.
Mr. A. C. Drury, engineer of the dominion railway commission, was also on hand and will examine the road for the highest authority in railway matters. B. B. Kelliker, chief engineer, H. H. Brewer, general superintendent, and others have already comed to the front and will be joined there by the large party Wednesday.

Trails Lined With Settlers.
Mr. Donaldson stated that the trek to the truly last great west was now in earnest. The trails are lined with settlers, their families and effects. In one week last month the G. T. P. alone shipped over 7,000 tons of settlers' effects into one district.
That the great cattle supply of the near future will come from the coun-

A Favoured Country

"The country which will see the greatest prosperity in the decade within the next few years," said Mr.
Donaldson, "is that lying north and west of Edmonton. A district which will be specially favored is that lying north and south and east and west from Prince George, where the Fraser and Nechako rivers meet."

"About 100 miles of the Pacific Great Eastern railway have been finished at the Vancouver end and soon it is to be pushed with all possible speed by Foley, Welsh and Stewart, contractors for most of the G. T. P. west of Edmonton, and by the Pacific Great Eastern north and south from Prince George, where the large G. T. P. party went there on the front Saturday night."

He stated that the P. G. E. from Prince George to Newwye, the point where it first strikes tide-water, about 40 miles north of Vancouver, will be ready for traffic this season, provided money conditions continue to brighten.
The road between Newwye and Vancouver is a particularly difficult one to construct, being through solid rock, along the east side of Howe sound, and the P. G. E. from first to last, even to surveying, which is something new in the history of the west. This distance from Prince George to Vancouver is 469 miles. About 6,000 men will be employed this summer.
Work will also be begun from Prince George north to the Peace River country.

Ready This Season

H. J. Fetter, general superintendent of Foley, Welsh and Stewart, contractors for most of the G. T. P. west of Edmonton, and for the Pacific Great Eastern north and south from Prince George, was among those at the King Edward hotel when the large G. T. P. party went there on the front Saturday night.

He stated that the P. G. E. from Prince George to Newwye, the point
where it first strikes tide-water, about 40 miles north of Vancouver, will be

COAST MERCHANTS ARE AFTER TRADE OF WEST COUNTRY

States Vancouver Board of Trade Getting Ready for Big Campaign.

WANT SETTLERS TO GO NORTH VIA THAT CITY

Expected P.G.E. Finished to Fort George from Newport This Fall.

"Vancouver merchants, wholesalers and business men do not propose to permit Edmonton to enjoy the profitable results of the trade of the Fort George country and central British Columbia, without a big struggle," said R. S. Grimes, who is registered at the King Edward hotel.

"The board of trade there plans to take up the question with a view to having a large proportion of the settlement for the Peace River go north via Vancouver and Fort George instead of through Alberta cities."

"No doubt they will have no time in securing information and getting down to work on a basis which will mean results."

"Winnipeg, Edmonton and Calgary have in the past been built up by the cash trade of the prairie settlers, and it is not too much to expect that the northern roads in Alberta are filled with prairie schooners, many of them from the United States, all on the way to the Peace River country. Most of way to meet the conditions as they will find them in the new north."

"We expect that with the early completion of the P.G.E. line between Vancouver and Fort George, a very large part of this settlement should be made through Vancouver, as we are informed that the traveling north of Fort George through the valleys to the north is just as light as north of Edmonton. It seems to me that it would be cheaper for American settlers to ship their goods to Fort George via Vancouver than to make a long overland trip in their schooners through Alberta."

When told that one, and possibly more, of the three railways would be completed from Edmonton into the heart of the Peace River country this fall, thus eliminating a horse and stage journey, Mr. Grimes stated that they also expected the P.G.E. to be finished to Fort George from Newport, on the Pacific, about 40 miles north of Vancouver, this fall, and construction to be well under way, north of Fort George toward the Peace.

Study Your Figure

Does it show smooth, naturally curving lines from knee to shoulder? Does your gown hang just the way it should? Have you the poise and graceful ease that marks the well-corseted woman? Yes, all this, as well as your health and comfort, depends upon your corset.

Redfern Corsets will prove this to you. Let us fit you to one of the new models for this season and you will certainly be pleased with the attractive result.

Consider for a moment the comparatively boneless models that are now the rage. Take one of these boneless Redferns in your hands and see how light and flexible it is—yet it will mold your figure with perfect support in ideal, fashionable lines. One feature is the supple clasp, giving the slightly curved front that fashion now demands.

The great secret, however, of Redfern superiority—for Redferns are superior, although inexpensive—lies in the designing.

From now on, this system will be used, it being copied from the C.P.R., which yearly expends about $50,000,000 through its purchasing department.

WORLD'S CHAMPION HIGH JUMPER TO COMPETE AT SHOW

Sifton's "Confidence" With Record of 8.6 Feet Included Attractions.

Sifton, of the finest show horses in Canada, representing the Sifton string from Ottawa, arrived in the city yesterday in their special car, and are now stabled at the Exhibition grounds awaiting the opening of the big spring event tomorrow. The following horses are in the string: "Confidence," Ironsides, Sweet Briar, Dorchester, Ravello, Elmhurst, Shywater, The Actress, Milligan, Last Post, Florham, Cleland, Flirtation, Hercules, Tollerado and The Wasp.

"Confidence" is the world's champion high jumper over both tied and loose poles. The record of 8.6 feet was made by him at the Ottawa show in 1912. This horse also jumped 5.5 feet at the Olympic Games, London, England, in 1912. In this competition he met the best high jumpers from France, Germany, Holland, Belgium, Ireland and Scotland.

"The Wasp" is another high jumper record and is one of the best in the Dominion today. "Scrapper" has a record of 7 ft. 4 in., as has also "Hercules" and "The Wasp." The latter horse made the jump at Oshawa, Ontario.

Sifton's famous heavy-weight hunter "Ravello" will be seen in action at the horse show. He is a rich chestnut, standing 16.2 and won the championship for heavy-weight hunters at Madison Square Garden, New York, at the National Horse Show last November. "Ravello" is also one of the famous hunting team, which includes "Elmhurst" and "Sunday Morning."

This team has many times won credit and as individual hunters.

"Cleland," another of the Sifton string, won the light-weight hunter championship at the Madison Square Garden show. "Sunday Morning" won the hunter championship at the same place three years ago.

Tollerado, won the saddle horse championship at Rochester last September and was also a big winner at Rochester, N.Y., and Syracuse. Other horses of the Sifton string have equally prominent performances to their credit and will be viewed with admiration by the audience.

The catalog for the Horse Show is now prepared and judging from the number of the entries and some of the splendid horses to be here, Edmonton will have one of the best horse shows in western Canada this year. In class 25, for aged Clydesdale stallion, 22 entries have been received; in the same class for Percheron, eight entries. There are also eight entries for aged Thoroughbred stallions, and nine for Suffolk Punch stallions.

There are 12 entries for pair of horses weighing between 100 and 1500 pounds. There are also 12 entries for single class for mares or gelding over 1500 pounds. There are 10 entries in the single rearing event. Alberta owned eight entries in the single pair class; seven entries in both the small and large trotting classes. The single carriage horse, Alberta owned, 12 entries have been forwarded.

Nine teams will compete in the spring tandem class, and thirteen horses in the harness and saddle class. There are 26 entries for pair of horses, saddle horse, and 17 in the ladies' saddle class. There are also many entries in the harness and jumping classes.

Care has been taken in arranging the program to have the events arranged to the best possible advantage. The afternoon performances with the exception of Good Friday and Saturday will be given on Monday to the evening horses and the evening's performance devoted to a great part to the fancy classes.

W. J. Stark, manager of the Horse Show, moved into his office in the stock pavilion today and will be open every day. The phone number is 71425.

Anaemic Mothers Here is Relief

You Can Enrich Your Worn-out
Blood and Quickly Renew
Your Health With Dr.
Hamilton's Pills.

Sufferer of Twenty Years Stated Dr. Hamilton's Pills are a Real Cure.
I can't remember any time during the last twenty years when I wasn't aching. If I bent over, dark specks would come before my eyes, and it seemed as if all the blood in my body wanted to rush to my head. This opens the letter of Mrs. Enoch S. Spry, of Petram, P.O., containing her interesting statement she says: "Work or exertion made my heart beat terrible, and going upstairs caused such shortness of breath that it fairly frightened me. I tell you I low I feel today and you can understand what a great cure Dr. Hamilton's Pills have made for me. I feel strong enough now to work like a man, as for going up stairs on the run, it doesn't bother me at all. I eat and sleep as any well person ought, and as for dizziness which used to frighten me so much, it has entirely disappeared. Dr. Hamilton's Pills are a wonderful medicine. They helped me, and I know every woman that uses them will have comfort and good health. Before my husband died, instead of Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Maundrie and Butternut, 25c per box at each drug store, I got a box of Catarrhine Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Canada.

"Every condition appears favorable for a record attendance at the first Edmonton Horse Show," said Manager W. J. Stark to a Capital reporter this morning. These distinguished guests will occupy places on the judges' stand in the center of the arena, where everybody present will have an opportunity of witnessing the very first event of the occasion.

The members of the R.N.W.M.P. and their outfits arrived from Regina on the morning train today. This splendid assemblage of mounted policemen will take part in a musical ride at the opening event on Tuesday evening, and also present the immense stock pavilion will be crowded to its utmost capacity. BENTON'S SLAYER TO PAY PENALTY WITH HIS LIFE

Major Rudolfo Fierro As Result of Investigation to Be Executed.

SAYS VILLA INTENDED
HOLDING SCOTCHMAN
Doomed Man Fired Fatal Shot
in Train Near Juarez.

Juarez, April 6.—Major Rudolfo Fierro, of General Villa's staff, is to be executed as the result of an investigation by a commission appointed by General Carranza into the killing of William S. Benton, the Scotchman on February 17. This was announced here yesterday together with a statement that the report of the commission finding is practically complete.

Major Fierro is now in the penitentiary in Chihuahua city. He has been relieved of his command in the rebel army, stripped of his rank and is being held incommunicado by Gen. Villa's orders. The report of the Carranza commission will show that when Benton upbraided Villa in the latter's office in Juarez, Villa ordered Major Fierro to shoot him under arrest, and to take him by train to Chihuahua that night and place him in the penitentiary.

"I will see how he acts after a month," General Villa is reported to have said. "If he is unmanageable, I will liberate him that he may return to the United States; if not I will hold him a while longer."

Fierro and a squad of soldiers boarded the train with Benton that night. A short distance north of Juarez, the testimony states, Fierro shot Benton in the head behind the left ear. The train was stopped, the dying man removed and then the rifle squad poured a volley of bullets into his body. Benton's body was then buried in a shallow grave at Samalayuca.

Wine List Is Abolished

Washington, April 6.—Secretary of the navy Daniels issued yesterday an order abolishing the wine lists on board all ships of the navy. It does not become effective until July 1 next. This action came as a surprise to naval officers and officials of the administration. It was said at the White House that Mr. Daniels acted without consulting the president.

It followed the receipt of a report from surgeon general Bristol of the navy, in which the latter condemned the wine mess aboard warships and recommended that an order be issued abolishing it. The order followed.

London, April 6.—London's crop of night clubs, which have sprung up like mushrooms, is threatened with a short life. The denunciation of hotel and restaurant keepers who appealed to Home Secretary McWenna Saturday for an extension of the supper hour failed to obtain any promise of direct relief from the licensing law, which compels them to close at 12:30 a.m., but they were informed that the night clubs would find their present privileges restricted under a bill shortly to be introduced.

New Labor Organization.

Toronto, April 6.—The general workers' union, a new labor organization of a socialist character, was formed in this city yesterday. I. Bainbridge is president; Lorne Scott secretary and Randolph Palsch, treasurer. Many members of local unions attended the meeting, but left before organizing began.

A Russell-Knight for $2,975

Ever since its record-breaking test at West Toronto, we've been deluged with demands for a $3,000 RUSSELL-KNIGHT. Every man seemed to want this wonderful motor. Men who had been offered cheap Sixes—Men who had been considering other good Fours—Men who appreciated QUALITY, but felt that $3,000 was their limit—

Men who refused to pay for imported cars 35 per cent. more than their actual worth.

All united to demand a car of RUSSELL Quality with the famous RUSSELL-KNIGHT Motor—at a lower price.

But—could we lower RUSSELL price without lowering RUSSELL standards? And RUSSELL standards must be maintained at any price!

Finally, the solution came to us through one of the very men who started the demand.

"I want a car like your '28'," he said. "I want your Knight motor, because I KNOW it's the best in the world. But $3,000 is all I can afford to spend. More, in fact, than I originally planned. Now—I don't need ALL the equipment that goes with your car. It's '$5,000-car' equipment. I could do with considerably less. Leave off some of the extra 'trimmings'—and sell me a $3,000 RUSSELL-KNIGHT."

Logical—simple—like all things, once you know how.

We worked out that plan. Eliminated some items of equipment—less than $3,000 and up cars. They're the accessories you won't find on any other car but the RUSSELL-KNIGHT. (And if you afterwards think you'd like to have them, they can easily be added at regular cost.)

So that here—at last—is a RUSSELL-KNIGHT

—the car with the World's Champion Motor—

—the most comfortable car in the world—

—the car of unequalled flexibility and economy—

—the cheapest car of its size and class to maintain—at about the same price as you figured on paying for a car of less value and lower grade.

EXAMINE—before you believe. Let RUSSELL superiority convince you that THIS IS THE BEST BUY IN CARS.

Not to see this car of today is to risk the loss of an early delivery date—perhaps to even miss entirely this opportunity of getting the BEST CAR VALUE ever offered in the Canadian field.

SPORT NOTES.

1886—Tommy Warren and Tom Barnes fought 40 rounds in a draw near Jeffersonville, Ind. This bout was for the featherweight championship of the world and was the first battle for that title under Marquis de Queensberry rules to be fought in America. Barnes was the English featherweight champion, and Warren claimed the American title by reason of his defeat of most of the good boys of his weight. Louisville was chosen as the battleground, but the authorities interfered, and the bouters and the sports went to Jeffersonville. A ring was pitched, and the two men fought but before the fight began several deputy sheriffs appeared on the scene. They were induced to partake liberally of the corn juice that made Kentucky famous, and the battle proceeded. Round after round the clever

An advance meeting of the Wholesalers' baseball team will be held in the Y.M.C.A. parlors on Tuesday evening, April 7, at 8 p.m.

The wholesalers will be stronger this year than ever before and this meeting is for the purpose of lining up two of the strongest teams in the city amateur league.

Contract forms will be given out at the meeting and all members of last year's teams are urged to be present as well as many new players are invited to join.

The wholesalers are importing some new material this season and promise to put up a first-class team among their teams. Grounds for practice have been arranged for.

Other information regarding the wholesalers' baseball team may be secured from R. M. Mitchell, care of Brown Fruit Co.

The victory of Cambridge University over Oxford in the annual boat race at Putney, England, over the 4-14 miles course, was not unexpected though it was their first win in six years. Of the 71 races rowed between Oxford and Cambridge since 1829, Oxford has won 25, Cambridge 21, and 1994 after a terribly hard race, Cambridge won in 1899 for the first time in ten years, and repeated in 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912, and 1913. In 1912 the race was a quarter of a length. The fastest time on record for the race is 18:29, made by Oxford in 1911. In 1912 the race had to be rowed over because on the first occasion both boats swamped, although Oxford resumed and finished.

Italy has taken to wearing garbs. Ten years ago the custom was almost unknown among them.

Gotch Has Been World's

Frank Gotch, who recently announced his retirement from the mat game, this being about the twentieth time that he has done so, is now back in the wrestling stuff—will celebrate tomorrow his sixth anniversary as heavyweight wrestling champion of the world. Gotch achieved that honor on April 3, 1908, when he defeated George Hackenschmidt, "the Russian Lion," forcing him to give up at the end of two hours and three minutes of ferocious and frenzied grappling. Neither man got a fall, but the lionine heart of the Russian was not equal to the strain and his lung power failed him. He soon recovered the latter, however, and put out a howl that was heard 'round the world. The Iowa "ruler" had best him at his own game, and Hack did not relish the bitter taste of defeat. Gotch has declared that henceforth he will stick to his Iowa farm, and will leave the mat game alone. He will be as wise if he sticks to this decision, as he is now nearing his thirty-sixth birthday and the age when defeat is about due. Gotch has taken good care of himself, has lived a normal, open-air life, and might be good for several years yet, but in the end youth must be served. The champion got a fortune out of the game while the getting was good, and there is no financial necessity for his return to the practice of his profession.

Old Cy Young, 47 Tomorrow, Set a Record for All Time

Denton Tatum, a Young, farmer, known to the baseball fans of two generations as "Cy" Young, one of the greatest pitchers in captivity, will pass his forty-seventh milestone tomorrow, having been born at Milmore, O., March 29, 1867. The country lad who became one of the shining stars of the diamond, and who retired to his Ohio farm in 1915 after twirling in his big league for nearly 22 years, left behind him a record that will probably never be equalled. Eddie Plank, the veteran pitcher of the Athletics, and Christy Mathewson, the hero of the Giants, both broke into fast company in 1901, and pitched as well as Plank. They still have nine years to go if they would come up to Old Cy's record. Young's career on the diamond began in 1889, when, a raw kid from the Ohio hinterland, he was brought by the Cleveland Naps to the Canton, Tri-Staters for $200. He was with the Clevelanders for nearly nine seasons, and then went to St. Louis, where he remained two years. In 1901 Cy jumped the National league and joined the Boston Americans for whom he pitched eight seasons. In 1909 he was sold to Cleveland, but was released in 1911, and went to the Boston Nationals to finish his big league career. Cy pitched more than 800 games in the big league, and won 400 of them. He figured in three no-hitters, and in one of them no player of the opposing team reached first base. His last feat was performed in 1904, in a game between Boston and the Athletics, for the first time since 1901.

Finally scientific pitching was in its early stages of development when Cy put into the game. When he made his major league debut and for many years thereafter Cy depended principally on a fast, swift, straight ball that jumped a hit on passing over the plate. A few pitchers had used the curve before Cy donned the cap, but the full development of that style of delivery came in Young's time, and he was among the first in mastering it. The fadeaway was next added to the repertoire of the up-to-date twirler. Virgil Hunter, of the Chicago Cubs, was the inventor, but Cy soon mastered it. Then came the spitter, which Old Cy could shoot in as cool as the best of them, when he wanted to. Young seldom used the spitter or the fadeaway, and he was sparing with his drops and the difficult kinds of curves, which he believed were hard on the arm. Cy was exceedingly careful with his snappy whiff, which is why it lasted so long.

The formation of a National Amateur hockey association is likely to occur soon so as to solidify the amateur hockey forces throughout the Dominion under the auspices of the A.A.U. of Canada. This plan has received the endorsement of most of the provincial associations, and is unquestionably a step in the right direction.

Next season the Toronto hockey arena will accommodate 10,000 people.

Montreal Boxing Bout.

Montreal, April 6.—Matty Baldwin and Knockout Brown, two of the best lightweights in the eastern states, will go to ten rounds in Montreal next Saturday evening at the opening of the new National Sporting Club.

Jimmy Clabby Goes 20 Rounds.

San Francisco, April 6.—Jimmy Clabby, of Hammond, Indiana, and Billy Murray, of Sacramento, middleweights, fought 20 rounds to a draw last night at Jolly City.

Alexander Smith Cochrane's cup defender, unnamed as yet, will be launched at Laval shipyards in Newport, April 25, according to an announcement today. The boat will race with the Defence and the Resolute for the honor of defending the America's cup against Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV.

Presentation By The EDMONTON CAPITAL

Willis J. Abbot, the versatile writer on international subjects and author of many books of history and travel, spent months in Panama and the Canal Zone in the preparation of this volume. He collected at first hands the complete history of the great Canal, with a wealth of historical data concerning Panama which has never before been written. The result is a human interest story of this beautiful land and its people from the early days when Columbus tried to find a natural waterway from the Atlantic to the Pacific, down to the present time.

Special staff photographers made the hundreds of beautiful views which illustrate practically every page of this exhaustive book.

The well-known artist, E. J. Read, made the sixteen sumptuous water-color studies which are reproduced by the latest color processes on specially made paper.

Theaters and Picture ShowsWATER QUEEN AND THREE SKETCHES ARE
ORPHEUM FEATURES

Headlining the Orpheum vaudeville bill at the Empire theater the first half of this week is a turn which has won signal honors on all vaudeville bills on which it has been a feature for the last six months. "Odette," the water queen, is the name of the young woman who features the program. In a large tank that covers the entire stage Odette performs many humorous and interesting diving feats. Assisting, or rather imitating her in the same tank is a school of Pacific coast sea lions, admirably trained.

Imitation of the stellar roles of "Little Nemo" and "Peter Piper," in which he starred a few years ago, are contributed by Master Gabriel, the maddest comedian. He is using for vaudeville purposes a sketch called "Little Rick," in which he is assisted by Al Linnar and Vida Perrin. Michelle Adams, the talented vaudeville violinist who was seen here last season, has gone into the two-day show season on a much larger scale. She does not confine herself to merely playing a violin, but she has had written for her by Edna Allen Wood, the well-known vaudeville writer, a sketch entitled "Wanda," which gives Miss Adams and her supporting company ample opportunities to display their talents.

Leon Kimberley and Halsey Mohr have a neat little novelty this season which they choose to call "Chubland." The scene is the interior of a club. The characters are one bachelor and one benedict. One tells of the joys of married life and the other of the loneliness of his lot as a bachelor. All this is done in song. The men have excellent voices and the lyrics are with interest, comedy and cleverness.

FAVORABLE COMMENT ON LYCEUM OFFERING
"POLLY OF THE CIRCUS"

"Polly of the Circus," the adaptation by Myron Leffingwell, comes to the Lyceum theater tonight for a run of one week, including matinees Wednesday, Good Friday and Saturday. This play, which is in four acts and 16 tableaux, has won commendable comment than probably any play of the last 10 years. Its appeal is universal, its characters so human and the plot so well developed that it meets all of the requirements necessary for a first-class play.

The story centers about a little circus rider who is injured while riding her white horse on a western town. She is taken to the home of a minister, who nurses her back to health, despite the disapproval of the members of his congregation, who object to a young circus rider being in a minister's house.

Through a series of adventures which afford considerable excitement, she finds a way and Polly and the minister become man and wife. The gossipers are silenced and the happy couple live happily ever after.

"WHEN WOMAN WILLS"
STORY WITH MORAL
AT THE DREAMLAND

Another excellent program is being shown at this leading photo-play theater today and tomorrow. The leading feature is entitled "When a Woman Wills" in two parts. This is a 6 fine drama, and is very interesting from start to finish. "The Idler," a Vitaphone film, is another good feature. Taken from the depths of poverty and brought up to luxury. How many might have done as this young man did. "Can we stand prosperity?" This question is often asked. How many of us would do as well as this young man did when given another chance. The answer is easily given when we see the picture and no one should lose the golden opportunity afforded at the Dreamland today and tomorrow when this extremely beautiful and absorbing story is presented.

Every Stiff Joint Limbered Rheumatism Cured!

That Old Family Remedy "Nerviline" is Guaranteed for the Worst Cases

CURES NEURALGIA, BACKACHE, LUMBAGO

Rheumatism today is unnecessary. It is so well understood and so readily curable that every day we have reports of old chronic being freed of their tormenter.

"I can speak confidently of the Nerviline treatment, for the simple reason that it cured me," writes Albert B. Cornelius, from Kingston. "You can't imagine how stiff and lame and sore I was. Night at a time I couldn't sleep well. I followed the Nerviline directions carefully—had it rubbed into the sore regions four or five times every day. Every rubbing helped to reduce the pain. The swelling went down. I got a fair measure of relief in a week. I also took two Peroneum Tablets with my meals. They relieved my appetite and spirits, purified my blood and toned up my system generally. I am as well today as a man could be—in perfect good health. I give Nerviline all the credit."

A large family size bottle of Nerviline costs only 50c, or the trial size 25c, and is useful in a hundred ills in the family. Whether it's toothache, headache, neuralgia, lumbago, back or a cold, Nerviline will cure just as readily as it will cure rheumatism. For family use nothing equals Nerviline.

KEYSTONE COMEDY
IS FINE FEATURE
AT BIJOU THEATER

The Bijou presents as one of the special features on its program for today and tomorrow a two-reel Keystone comedy success—"Daffie," the Gentleman Burglar. To those who have seen a Keystone attraction nothing more really need be said, for the Keystone players are the greatest comedy film players in the world. It is not often that a two reel comedy is offered by the comedy film managers, so that this feature is unusual in that regard.

"Daffie," the Gentleman Burglar, is taken on Clyde Rusk's great work—"Daffie." This subject gives these fun-makers a royal opportunity to make the most of it and that they are capable of doing it has been attested to the complete satisfaction of the Edmonton audience more than once.

The Bijou theater is fortunate in being the home of the Keystone comedies for this city and more than once their hilarious comedy has chased away the glooms and sadness that have lingered over from the day's toil.

A Reliance feature, "The Idlers" directed by Mr. David W. Griffiths, the world's highest paid picture producer and director, the genius of cinematography, will also be an attraction on this program.

Pathe's Weekly, picturing many of the most interesting current events concludes the program.

"BRIDE OF MYSTERY" STIRRING STORY AT
MONARCH THEATER

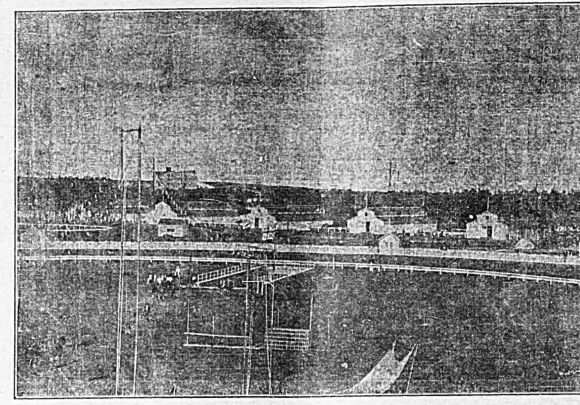

The story of the photoplay "The Bride of Mystery," at the Monarch theater today and tomorrow is the result of strange mystery and power, of impending tragedy which penetrates the dark animal part of the mind and arouses vague self-pity and terror, as when one listens to a ghost bell in the dead of night. There is intrigue, fighting, excitement and red-blooded melodrama.

The important male role is that of a great specialist, who at the last moment prevents an awful calamity overtaking a beautiful woman. At the opening of the play we find this specialist, willing away the evening in a popular cafe. At the next table to his a woman is seated. Owing to the cold and alabaster appearance of her face—to her black eyes which seem to gaze through the safe walls, the specialist at once becomes interested in her. He concludes that she is in a state of hypnosis. A man is seen tampering with the electric switch-board. Suddenly the lights in the cafe go out.

"The action and settings of this film are at times marvelous, and shows the utmost ends that are gone to in the proper production of a modern picture. No expense is spared and no ingenuity and difficulty, and at times dangers are encountered, so that the right effect can be secured. In this installment will be seen Kathlyn thrown in the den of ravenous, snapping and vicious lions, one of the ordeals, and her miraculous escape. It is all so vividly shown that one will tremble at the sight."

The other ordeal is being strapped to the door of a leopard trap so that when the animal sleeps upon the dead fall will close the door enclosing both the enraged beast and the girl in the trap. The leopard springs on the dead-fall and the door closes, but her escape from this is fully as spectacular. A more exciting series of events has not been before offered in pictures.

"The Adventures of Kathlyn" is being shown at the Empress photoplay theater for today and tomorrow only.

SHOWING STABLING ACCOMMODATION FOR HORSES AND ENTRANCE TO TUNNEL
UNDER RACE TRACK.

When the cause of the trouble is found the mysterious woman who she occupied is stretched the body of a dead man. At the first, the driver, the property of a cigarette as the only clue; the cigarette bears the personal monogram of the owner.

A week passes. While sitting in the box of a theater the specialist again sees the strange woman as a dancer on the stage. From the program he learns that she is known as Countess P., and he again notices that she appears to be hypnotized. Following her eyes he observes in the audience a man staring at her identity. It is the same man observed in the safe murder. At this point a fire breaks out in the theater and the specialist has all he can do to save himself.

The same night there is a great bank robbery, and the detective can find no other another hint of a monogrammed cigarette. In the meantime the body of Countess X has been recovered from the theater ruins and is taken to the morgue of the medical institution in which the specialist labors.

The specialist, at the ceremony of life and by applying a new discovery he recovers her. The hypnotist learns the secret of the experiment and goes to the specialist's house. Through the window he sees his former victim, but is unable to catch a spell over her.

After a time the Countess marries the specialist. At the ceremony the detective comes upon the hypnotist trying to fasten the eyes of his former victim. He succeeds and carries the Countess away. Guests and police follow them to a dive. The hypnotist forces are defeated, and as a last resort, the hypnotist floods the place, a subterranean chamber, with water. It causes his own death, but the Countess is rescued from the rising waters.

SECOND INSTALLMENT
KATHLYN SERIES AT
EMPRESS THEATER

The second picture installment of the most spectacular and pretentious film serial production—"The Adventures of Kathlyn," will be exhibited today and tomorrow at the Empress theater. These pictures are notable and unique in a number of ways. They illustrate and develop the entire book of that popular and talented novelist, Harold MacGrath, who presented under the name of "The Unwelcome Throne" the same theme that is being now shown at the Empress theater.

This chapter of the film presents a number of the most thrilling episodes of the entire work. Its special feature, "The Two Ordeals," because of the two punishments inflicted upon Kathlyn, the heroine, who refuses to become the wife of the Indian Prince who had fallen in love with her.

The action and settings of this film are at times marvelous, and shows the utmost ends that are gone to in the proper production of a modern picture. No expense is spared and no ingenuity and difficulty, and at times dangers are encountered, so that the right effect can be secured. In this installment will be seen Kathlyn thrown in the den of ravenous, snapping and vicious lions, one of the ordeals, and her miraculous escape. It is all so vividly shown that one will tremble at the sight."

The other ordeal is being strapped to the door of a leopard trap so that when the animal sleeps upon the dead fall will close the door enclosing both the enraged beast and the girl in the trap. The leopard springs on the dead-fall and the door closes, but her escape from this is fully as spectacular. A more exciting series of events has not been before offered in pictures.

"The Adventures of Kathlyn" is being shown at the Empress photoplay theater for today and tomorrow only.

LITTLE DIFFICULTY
NOW FOR CANADA TO COMPLETE PROGRAM

London, April 6.—The amount of capital raised here during the last three months has been exceedingly heavy, yet market judges say that owing to the available supply of cash being so large this demand has created little inconvenience.

This week finds two applications from Canada railways, namely, the Grand Trunk, which is asking £1,500,000 and the Central railway of Canada, which is asking to raise £1,225,000. Financial writers speak entirely favorable of the Grand Trunk railway as a sound long-run investment carrying excellent security. The Morning Post considers that there is a speculative element about the Central railway bonds.

The Fall Mail Gazette thinks there will be little difficulty now in Canada completing her program of railway, municipal and other developments.
